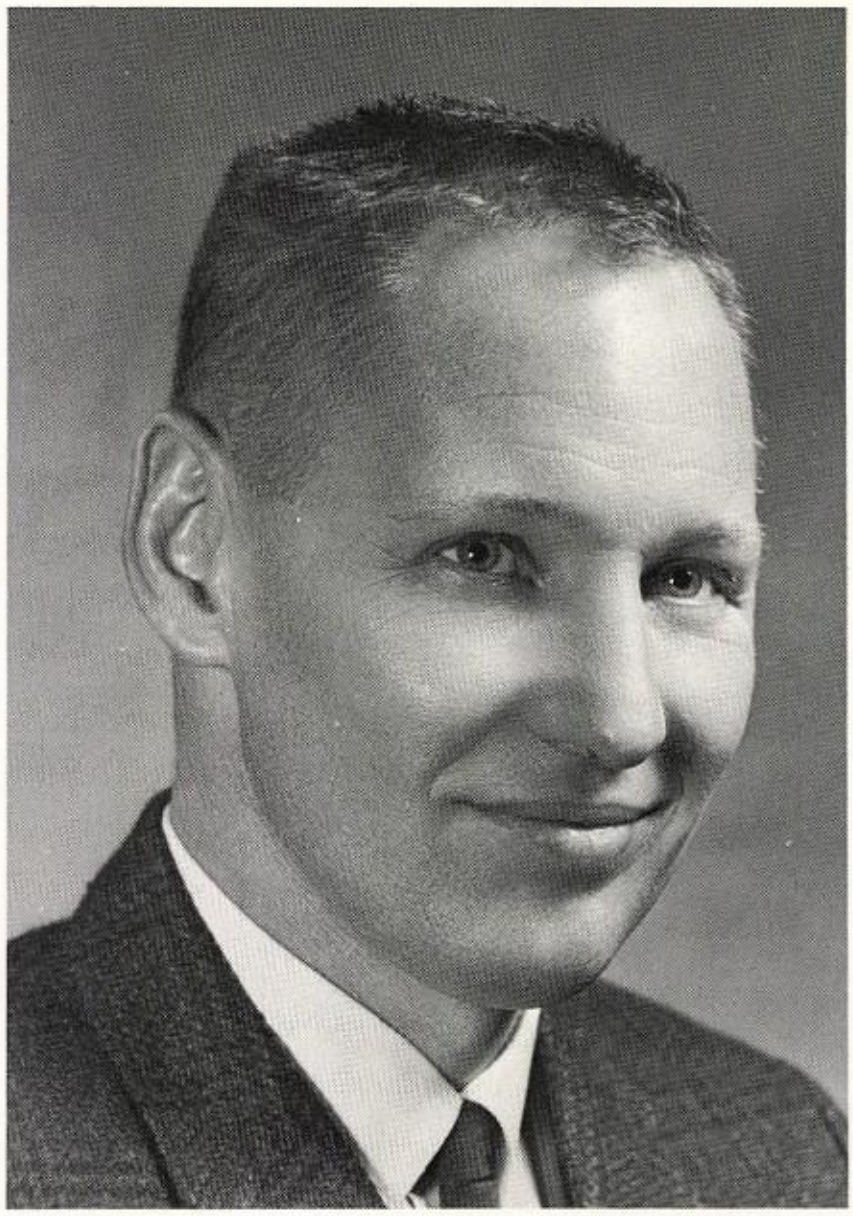
Leo H. Pryor



During the course of a student's education, he comes in contact with many different teachers. Yet there is always that one teacher for whom the student gains the deepest respect and admiration. One of these teachers, whom we believe to leave a lasting impression upon his students, is Mr. Leo H. Pryor.

During the past years, Mr. Pryor has come in contact with a great number of students of Lockport Township High School, East and Central campuses, through his teaching and sponsorship of extra-curricular activities. His main teaching objective has been revealing the mysteries of Chemistry to countless bewildered students. He has always had patience, understanding, and time to advise students both in and out of the classroom. Under his sponsorship, the Student Council has benefited the entire student body. A hardworking man, he never leaves a task until it is completed, and he expects students to do the same.

Outside of school, Mr. Pryor has shown leadership in the First Congregational Church. He has served as Chairman of the Board of Deacons and as a sponsor of the high school youth group. We are sure Mr. Pryor has encouraged many young people and adults to lead a Christian life and has gained many rewarding experiences through his church work.

Mr. Pryor also has taken great pride in his family. He is the father of two daughters who have only the highest regard for him. His wife is as active as her husband, and together they face the problems of everyday life.

We feel that Lockport, "our town," is a better place because a man such as Mr. Pryor lives and works here. He is an enthusiastic supporter of home, school, church, and community. For all your efforts, your fighting spirit, your honest opinions, your humor and your knowledge, we dedicate the 1966 Lock to you—Mr. Leo H. Pryor.

DEDICATION

One hundred and thirty-six years ago the future of "our town" was only an insecure promise and the present a challenge. To transform the forest and the prairie into farms and to build a civilization to replace the wilderness took blood, sweat, and tears.

In October 1830, Armstead Runyon and his family came into the little valley. The next few years were to see a few more families come and settle in Runyontown. But with the outbreak of the Black Hawk War in 1832, all the families that had settled left their scarcely finished homesteads to take refuge in Fort Dearborn. When the war ended, the men returned and built a block house for the protection of their families. Soon the women and children returned and the settlement of Runyontown commenced again.

Work began on the Illinois and Michigan Canal in 1836. As engineers came to the area, they literally moved the town from the northern end of the village to the location we know as Lockport, a name which replaced that of Runyontown when the first series of locks was built here.

The first of several early churches in Lockport was the First Congregational Church, founded October 31, 1838, by the Rev. Isaac Foster. Shortly thereafter St. Dennis, the Methodist, and the Episcopal Churches were established. The pioneers were interested in providing educational facilities as well as places of worship. Therefore, in 1839, they built the first village school at the corner of Eighth and Hamilton Streets, but not until 1857 was a permanent building, housing both elementary and high school classes, erected in the square block bounded by Hamilton, Washington, Eighth, and Ninth Streets. It remained in use until destroyed by the fire of 1895. It was then replaced by the present Central School building which served grades one through twelve until the erecting of L.T.H.S. in 1909.

With the completion of the I & M Canal, Lockport began to prosper, leaving many of the dangers and hardships of earlier years far behind. However, in 1849 the young village suffered a major catastrophe in the form of a cholera epidemic which took many lives. Undaunted, Lockport continued to progress and was incorporated as a village some twenty-three years after the arrival of the first white settlers.

In the great fire of 1895, the entire business district was destroyed but within four years, many stone and brick buildings were built, some of which still house the business establishments of today.

Work on the Chicago Sanitary Canal, a channel almost parallel to the I & M Canal, was begun in 1900. Thirty-three years later the Lockport Lock, which is the first of a series on the canal, was completed after many setbacks. Today Lockport is no longer a little wooded valley but a rapidly growing community consisting of home, school, and church with many old traditions, yet full of spirited new ideas looking forward to growth in the future.

OUR TOWN

Home

Home life plays a big part in our town. It isn't just the houses; it's the wonderful families in them that make these dwellings homes. The families are enthusiastic especially where their children are concerned. The Lockport families have spirit and take pride in our town. There is both cooperation and a close bond between neighbors. When a tornado struck on August 26, the people of Lockport helped each other above and beyond the call of duty. This unity has transformed the houses of Lockport into homes, homes where family devotion and brotherly love tackle and overcome any dilemma that presents itself.

On August 26,1965, a tornado completely stripped the roof from the home of Leroy and Marie Lawrence, members of the East and Central faculties.

One of the most indestructable forces is the family. The Moulthrop family, Reverend George Moulthrop, his wife Shirley, and their three children, Dave, Julie, and Peter set a fine example for the citizens of "our town."

The oldest school building in Lockport, Lockport Central Grade School, is one of "our town's" great centers of elementary learning.

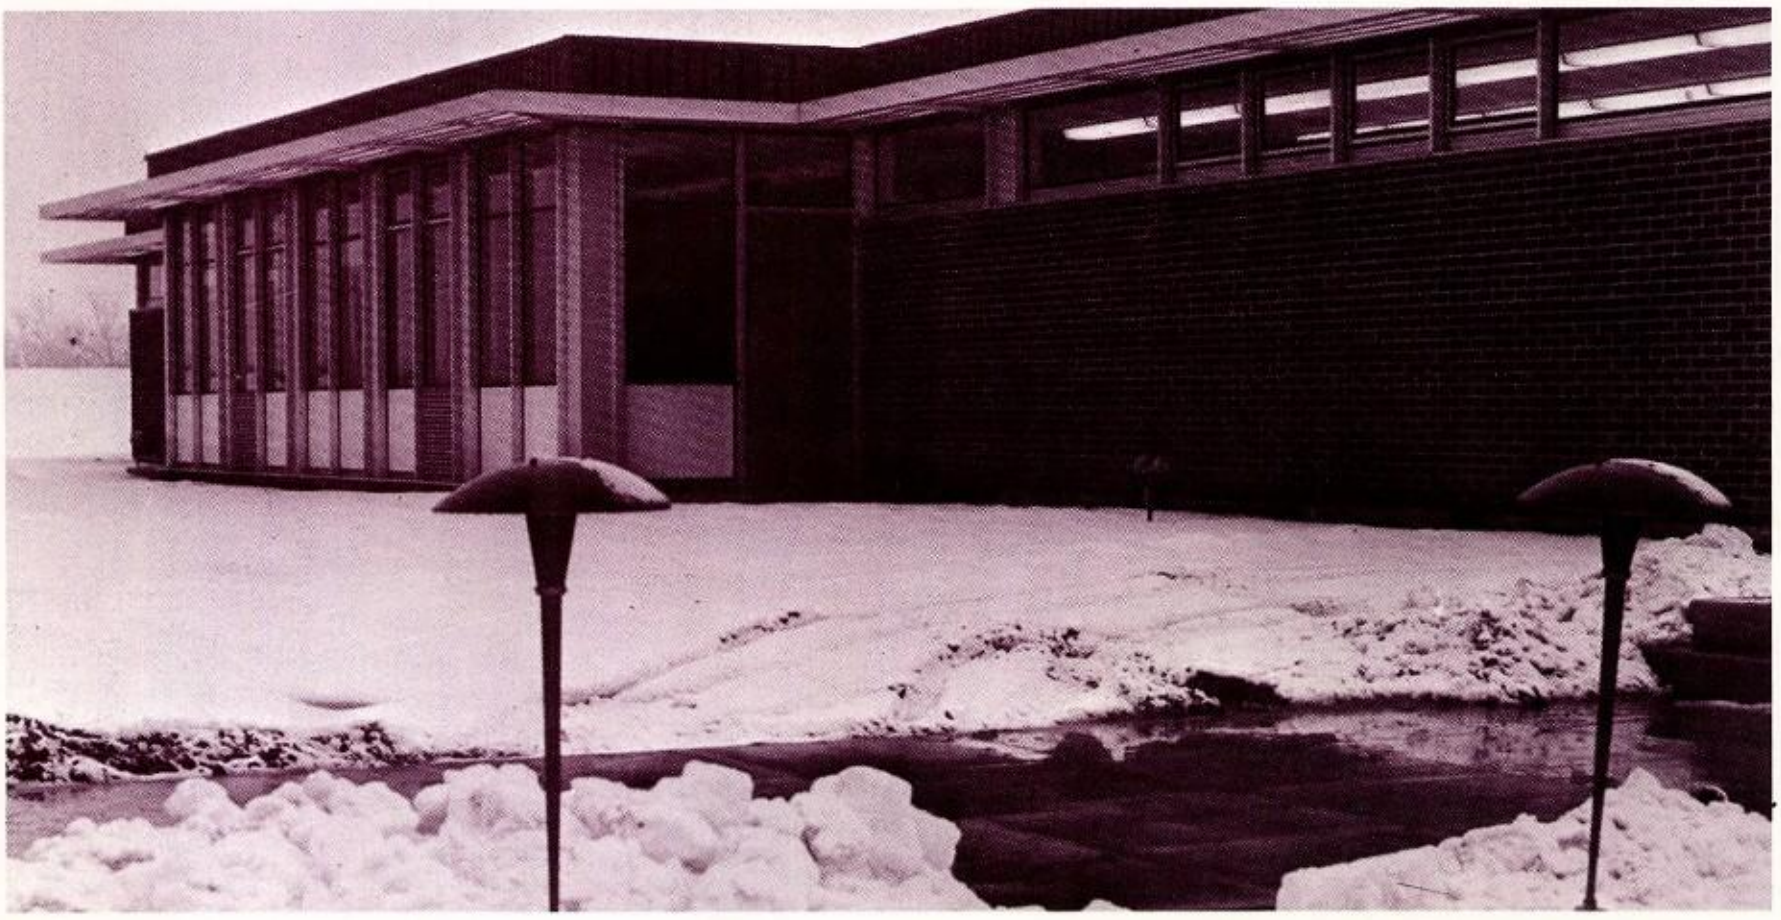
Construction of the new addition to Kelvin Grove Junior High School progressed as the need for physical facilities became necessary.

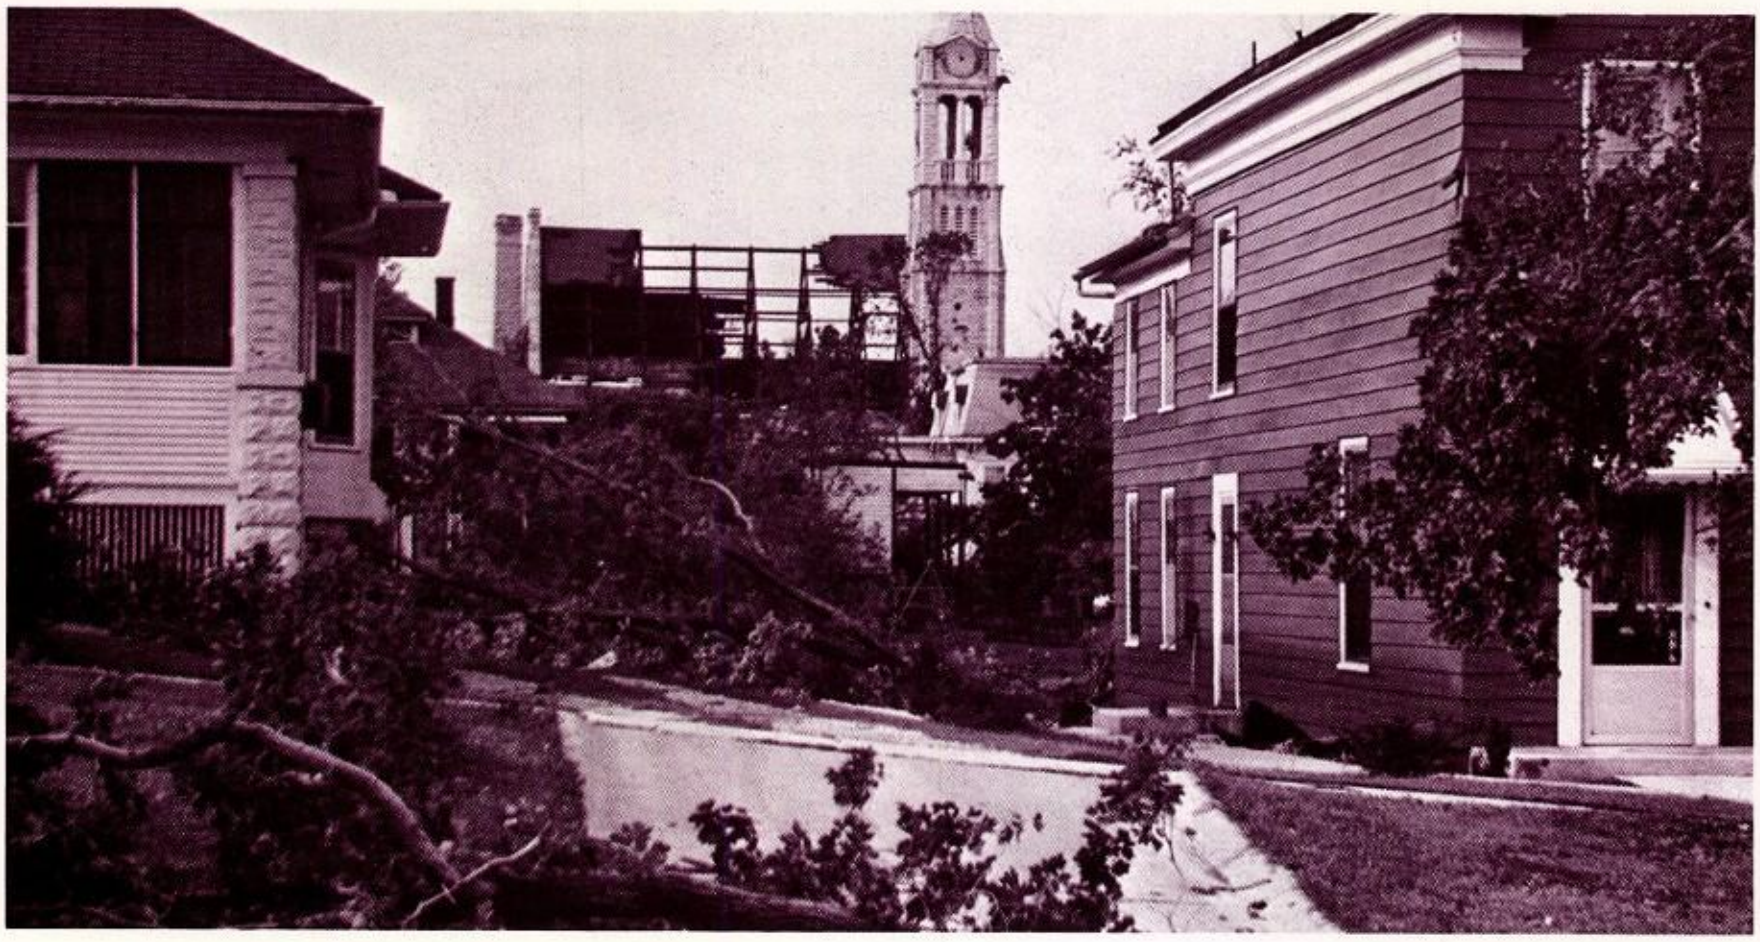
School

One of the factors in determining the greatness of a nation is the quality of the education of its youth. Schools are essential in our society for developing individuals to their fullest potential and for maintaining national strength and welfare.

The schools in "our town" have created a healthy, intellectual atmosphere for the process of higher learning. They provide for social adjustment, character training, understanding and appreciating Democracy, health guidance, and career guidance, all of which add to our cultural heritage.

From the time a child is very small until the time he has reached his highest degree of formal education, the school instills in him, his basic beliefs, desires and his purpose in life with the discovery of new and greater truths. The educational system of Lockport has produced and will continue to produce the type of American we can be proud to claim.





Church

The morning of August 27, 1965, saw the citizens of Lockport surveying the damage created by the tornado of the previous night. As the people stood with tears in their eyes, they beheld the sight of the demolished structures of both the St. Dennis and First Methodist Churches. The question of, "but why the churches?" occupied their minds.

The determination of the people to continue to worship their Creator was shown when the parishioners of St. Dennis began to hold their services in the Lockport Central auditorium.

Lockport has many churches of all faiths. No matter how new, how old, how ornate, or how simple each may be, they are all beautiful because of the people that worship within these spiritual walls.

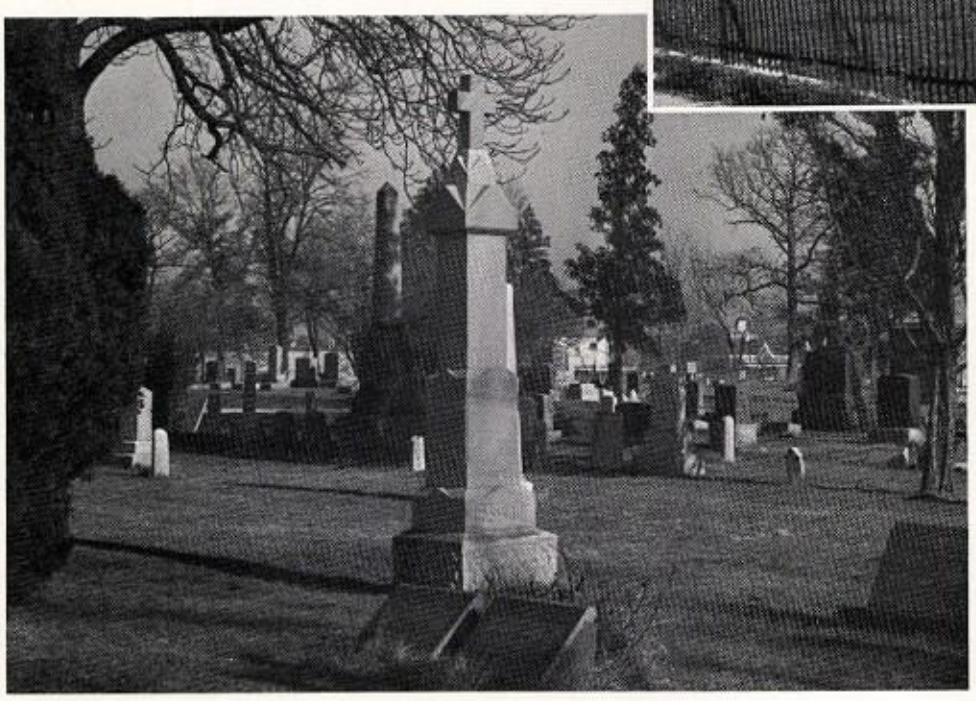
The Lockport Township Public Library will always remain in the minds of most of Lockport's residents as the big white building on the corners of Eighth and State Streets. In June, 1966, Lockport opened a new library in its place, and this old landmark was demolished.

One of Lockport's city cemeteries.



Although Lockport is just a short distance from Chicago, it has developed a personality all its own. Our rapidly growing community has been enriched by many traditions that add to its spirit. There are the traditional Friday night football games, the basketball games, the summer band practices, the Homecoming parade, and so many other memorable events.

If someone asks you where you are from, tell them with pride, Lockport, Illinois, home of the Music Man Marching Band, the Fighting Porters, member of the Elite Eight, the Lockport Locks, and the Texaco Refinery. It's our town and we are mighty proud of it.

The main functions of the Student Council this year were to improve human relations, to bring a closer contact between the two schools, and to give all students a chance to voice their ideas and suggestions. While Barry Anderson and Mark Zander capably led the Central student body as co-presidents, Craig Daub and Laurie Jaggers functioned well as East co-presidents. The task of the co-presidents is not an easy one; they not only act as leaders of the Student Council, but they also are the co-ordinators of all assemblies and pep sessions.

The Homecoming festivities, the Twirp Dance, the Valentine's Dance and the Spring semi-formal were some of the major events on the councils' agenda this year. The suggestion box was set up in the Smith Foyer to offer a chance for improvement of our schools. The Human-Relations Committee, which was organized this year, was necessary to lessen student-student and student-teacher conflicts. The Project Committee worked on bettering the relationship between our students and the Latin American students attending the school partially built with our help.

With the help of the Student Council sponsor, Mr. Pryor, the council was able to accept the challenge placed before it and to function properly.

Mr. Pryor has more than fulfilled his duties as the sponsor of Student Council this year as well as in the past.

Few people realize the amount of work and preparation that goes into the production of a concise but interesting yearbook. The able LOCK co-editors this year were Judy Wheeler and Elaine Longhini. They were responsible for notifying all editors of their duties and their deadlines as well as organization of the layouts for the book. The completion of their work relies on the work of many other editors also. In addition to class section editors, there are copy editors, photography editors, business managers, dance managers, sports editors, and art editors. Each one has his job to complete before the final task of production is ready to be carried out.

This year's copy editors were Kathy Meader and Diana Entwisle, who checked all the copies for grammatical and constructional errors. The photography editor in charge of arranging and scheduling pictures of all events, organizations, and activities was Janet Rodeghero. The business manager Carol Larsen was responsible for all money-building projects including the sale of yearbooks. Her dance manager was Jill Riebe, whose task was that of organizing bands and chaperones for the after-game dances. Dance chaperones this year included Mr. Kenneth Griswold, Mr. Andrew Fazio, Mr. Bill Hart, and Miss Elizabeth Patterson.

Under the Supervision and guidance of Miss Janet Johnson, the LOCK sponsor, the entire staff worked busily but capably preparing the book.

Times: Reporters of L.T.H.S.

Co-Editors Sandy Nielsen and Dinah Simmen worked diligently to make the TIMES informative and interesting for all.

The TIMES, L.T.H.S.' school paper is responsible for keeping students and faculty informed about school events, clubs, and local news. The TIMES carries articles of interest to all students. Included are reports of club meetings, Aunt Chip's friendly and helpful advice, provocative editorials, and up-to-date school news from cafeteria to classroom. Feature articles take a close-up look at special people in school or out, and special events occurring anywhere. Sometimes a teacher or a student profile is spotlighted. All sports are given coverage with a summary of the action and plenty of pictures.

The biggest job on the paper is that of the co-editors. This year's co-editors, Sandy Nielsen and Dinah Simmen, have done an outstanding job. They have had to oversee the work of all branches of the paper as well as assign articles to reporters. They were helped in this work by the assistant editor, Marilyn Angus. The job of keeping all phases of the paper running as a smooth unit belonged to Judy Jerabek, this year's co-ordinating editor. Supervising, criticizing, and giving an adult's opinion was Mrs. Virginia Mitchell, TIMES sponsor. Mrs. Mitchell donated much time and effort not only to the paper, but also to the literary edition, The Prism, a collection of student writing published once a year. The TIMES comes out once every two weeks, so if you happen to look into a homeroom someday, and students are reading a newspaper instead of doing homework, just remember—it's a sign of the TIMES!

The Sound of Music

The Lockport Central and Lockport East choirs have proved to be enjoyable for the many students who participate in them each year. From the Central campus comes the a cappella choir which consists of junior-senior girls and boys. There is also a girls' chorus for upperclassmen. From each class at Central comes a girls' sextet that sing popular three part music. Besides the other groups, the Madrigals, who are a selected group of upperclassmen from the a cappella choir sing merry music from the 17th century. The Madrigals sing for numerous social events throughout the year.

The East campus has a frosh-soph choir and a sophomore sextet. At the annual Christmas and spring concerts, if the director wishes, he combines the two choirs.

In March, Mr. Donald Meints, one of Lockport's finest and well-known directors, left the Lockport Central and Lockport East choir for another field of teaching. Another man, Mr. John Baird, has now taken his place.

The choir has social events during the year for its members, such as a hay ride in the fall and a picnic or trip to the sand dunes at the end of the year. The Madrigal custom is to have dinner at the close of the year. All choir members will tell you what a rewarding experience choir has been.

Mr. Donald Meints, former choir director, is found here busy with his new duties as reading instructor.

Marching on

A glimpse of a flag and strains of a song greeted the eyes and ears of the Canadian crowds who lined the streets of Toronto waiting for the Lockport Township High School Band. In Canada our fine band once again lived up to its great reputation by winning first place in a parade sponsored by the Eagles Club. While in Canada, the band saw the Canadian side of Niagara Falls, magnificent flower gardens, and the home of many famous people. This was their summer trip. Once school started the band went to work again.

Under the direction of Ernest Caneva and Herbert Tatroe, the band prepared a new and interesting half-time show for the football season. The fans saw a thrilling show at each home game. A brilliant performance was also shown in a half-time display at one of the Joliet Explorers' games.

The band also showed its talent by playing for pep assemblies given the afternoon before basketball games and at half-time during the home games. The pep band added much to the already good school spirit.

Playing for games was not all that the band members did. They took part in the Thanksgiving Day parade in Chicago and participated in various school assemblies for Homecoming, Veteran's Day, and Christmas. Two concerts were given this year, one in December with the choir and the other, an annual band concert, given in February. To wind up the school year, the band played for commencement exercises in June.

Under the leadership of Mr. Phillip Polley, sponsor, and the officers, Diane Siegers, president, Tom Scott, vice-president, Dinah Simmen, secretary, and Debbie Ehrhart, treasurer, the club has enjoyed a very successful year.

Tomorrow's Business Women

One of the many fine clubs in our school is the F.B.L.A., short for the Future Business Leaders of America. This organization has many fine business students and the capable sponsorship of Mrs. Jane Manwaring. Meetings, which were held once a month, offered the students a variety of informative speakers and interesting demonstrations. During the year the members were kept busy by a combination of meetings, at least one field trip, and two doughnut sales. The officers this year were president, Elaine Wegrzyn; vice-president, Virginia Affrunti; secretary, Elaine Yedinak; treasurer, Sherry Bernot; and reporter, Pat Sippel.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Jane Manwaring, the F.B.L.A. were able to accomplish many things.

The F.B.L.A. officers were: Bette Welter, Elaine Wegryzn, Elaine Yedinak, Virginia Affrunti, and Sherry Bernot. Not Pictured: Pat Sippel.

Fine Are Future Farmers

The Future Farmers of America is a nation wide organization. Our Lockport chapter is just one of a unit of similar chapters made up of high school boys interested in agriculture.

Mr. Leroy Lawrence, the club sponsor, and the members work hard at numerous activities during the year. They sponsor the coat checks at games, a car wash, and an annual paper drive. They also compete in public speaking contests.

The members benefit by knowledge of modern farming methods and hope to become better improved and superiorly skilled farmers.

Enthusiastic Energumen

To achieve good sportsmanship and create an inspiring school spirit was the aim for which the Pep Club was striving and achieved. Backing up the team through victory as well as defeat, the members of the Pep Club managed to maintain a lively and enthusiastic atmosphere at all of the pep assemblies and games.

An added attraction this year to the basketball games was the meter which registers with various colored lights the volume of the cheering. This meter was a contribution of the Pep Club.

This year's Pep Club was under the sponsorship of Mrs. Helen Pelletier. Letters were awarded to members who had paid their dues, attended one swimming meet, one wrestling meet, six home and four away basketball games.

Lettermen of Lockport

The L-Club not only promotes school spirit, but it also provides the initiative for underclassmen to participate and excel in varsity sports. To become a member, a boy must earn a varsity letter in any school sport and then be voted in for Club membership.

The rowdy initiations are only a part of the boys' fun. They also sponsor a dinner dance and a picnic annually. This year the dinner dance was held at Autumn Acres, with entertainment provided after the meal. The picnic was at Argonne, with most of the food supplied by the coaches' wives.

Like the rest of the school clubs, the L-Club has its work and responsibilities in addition to its fun. Each Friday the boys must wear their letter-sweater, white shirt, and tie. At all of the home football and basketball games, you see the busy lettermen as ushers. Besides these responsibilities, during Homecoming week, the L-Club orders and sells mums and pins or buttons to promote school spirit. At the close of the basketball season, the L-Club sponsors an interclass and faculty tournament. Their coaches are the first-string varsity basketball players. The winning team then plays the "unbeatable" faculty team.

A swat in the you know what never hurt nobody?

Randy Henning receives the full treatment at one of the L-Club initiations from Chuck Huckaba, Dennis Hray, and Marty Sullivan.

"THUNDERATION!" The 1965-1966 Porter delegation was led very enthusiastically by the eight Porter pepsters. Under the guidance of the sponsor, Mrs. Helen Pelletier, and the senior co-captains, Jill Brown, Kathy Kennedy, and Carol Larsen, the squad aroused school spirit high enough to completely light up the Pep Club's new yell-meter.

The three seniors, Jill Brown, Kathy Kennedy, and Carol Larsen, two juniors, Barb Lawrence, and Betty McFarland, and three sophomores, Dee Engstrom, Pat McSherry, and Kathy O'Brien practiced diligently throughout the football and basketball seasons. They worked twice a week, and extra sessions were called before Homecoming and the tournaments. Every pep assembly held before the games, found the cheerleaders enthusiastically stirring up the spirit of the student body.

The cheerleaders attended a cheerleading clinic at Niles Township High School in November, enabling them to present many new cheers and chants to the Porter fans, who accepted them with warm response.

Our thanks to the cheerleaders for successfully encouraging school spirit and good sportsmanship while backing the "Fighting Porters."

Karen Baumgartner and Karen Kalmes are two of the many girls who went out for tennis.

S. Holland, A. Sharp, K. Meader, M. Schake, L. Waltner, P. Bargas, J. Teiber, K. Meadors, C. Jungles, C. Smith, L. Hahn, K. Bowers were the top twelve bowlers.

G.A.A.: Pleasure with a Purpose

G.A.A. was under the capable leadership of Beth Ayers, Carolyn Jungles, Cam Smith and Kathy Meader.

The Girls' Athletic Association, one of Lockport High's largest organizations, completed another successful season this year. With the guidance of the girls' physical education teachers, the girls in the club participated in such sports as tennis, volleyball, bowling, basketball, and life saving.

The better skilled girls took part in the state basket shooting contest and the state bowling tournament. This year our school placed fourth in the bowling tournament.

Each girl in the club receives three points of credit for each hour she spends in a G.A.A. activity. At the end of the term, all points are totaled up and letters and pins are awarded according to the number of points earned.

G.A.A. offers girls a chance to participate in extracurricular sports, promote physical fitness, and encourage good sportsmanship. The girls are given instruction in all sports they participate in. The most advanced or the least experienced girl can pick up a few tips on how to improve herself.

The Girls' Athletic Association is a healthful, relaxing way to release the tensions of a rough day at school.

If we pray hard enough, maybe she will make it.

This year the senior all stars were C. Huckfeldt, C. Pitts, C. Saunders, S. Hickman, C. Mitchell, and B. Wittkofski.

J.M.C.: Junior Pill Givers

Future "ladies and gentlemen in white" is a term which applies to the members of the Junior Medical Club. In keeping with their ideal, "giving a helping hand," this well co-ordinated organization gave assistance in the health room.

The Junior Medical Club initiates their membership drive in the fall which is followed by their annual picnic. At Christmas time, juniors and seniors in good standing receive their J.M.C. pins.

In order to obtain sufficient funds for these activities, the members worked, checking coats and admitting spectators to our home football and basketball games.

Under the capable leadership of the sponsor, Mrs. Verna Habenicht, the Junior Medical Club of Lockport Township High Schools have set and accomplished their goals.

The officers M. Tierney, W. Totulis, C. Toon, and G. Nelson are the chief pill givers.

Camera Club

A new club that was organized this year is the Camera Club. The organizer and sponsor of this club is Mr. Frank Lundal. John Skori was president, and John Hemphill was vice-president.

The main purpose of this organization is to get an "inside view" on the camera. It was developed for students who want to know more than just how to take pictures.

The club's main function is to make photographers available when needed.

Precision Porterettes

The drill team, Precision Porterettes, was organized this year to give girls, who have displayed talent and interest in marching, a chance to perform a service to the school.

In October, under the direction of Miss Gwen Doering, try-outs were held in which only freshmen and sophomores were eligible. From seventy-two girls who tried out, thirty were selected to comprise the group.

Some of their money raising projects included a bake sale and a candy sale. Money from these projects were used to purchase maroon and white jumpers for performances. Through practice and fine leadership, the Precision Porterettes provided precise entertainment for many fans this year.

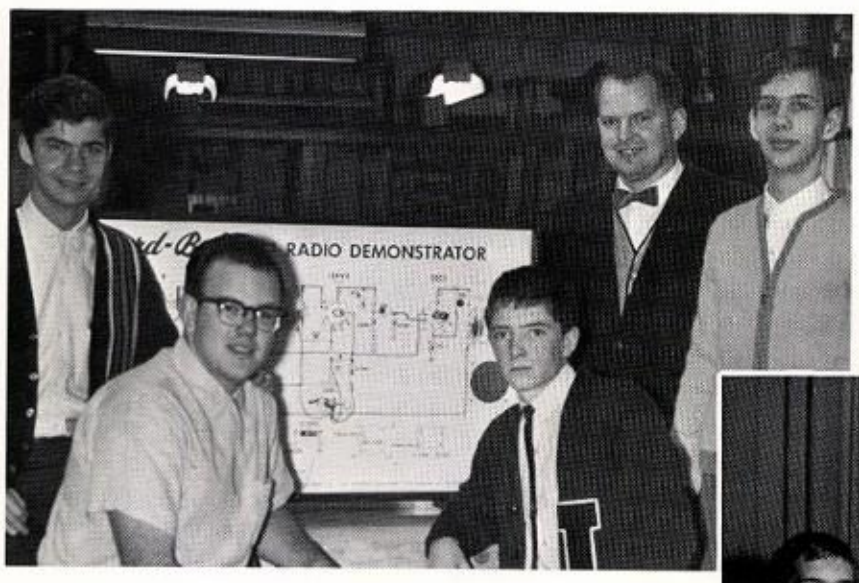
Magic Lantern Lighters

Besides running up and down stairs with projectors and screens and setting lighting for class plays and assemblies, the members of the Projectionist Club also worked at many dances, football games, and wrestling meets.

Their main project of the year was installing a new public address system in the school auditorium.

During the year they had their annual steak fry and went to the auto show in Chicago. In the summer, they had several swimming parties.



Gary Nelson, President; Tom Sedivy, Treasurer; Phil Rittenhouse, Vice-President; Mr. Paul Jorgenson, Sponsor; and Doug Nippa, Secretary; were fine examples of the ever-working projectionists.

Makers of Make-Believe

The newly created Drama Club of Lockport High School, the "Lockport Limelighters," consisting of students from both East and Central Campuses, is under the direction of Miss Helen Rothlisberger. The purpose of the club is to promote among the fellow students and people in the community an interest in the theater arts and to enrich their culture. The Club's constitution clearly states that membership is open to all students who are interested in the field of theater arts. The club boasts of forty paid members, including the officers: Jim Meyer, president; George Radcliffe, vice-president; Joanne Clarizio, recording secretary; Debbie Drost, corresponding secretary; Sue Reed, treasurer; and Dianne Siegers, publicity director.

Every month the club has two meetings consisting of skits, demonstrations concerning theater arts, and occasional film strips.

David Beckham, an office aide distributes films, one of his many duties.

Some of the students of Lockport Central gave up their study halls in order to keep the school system running smoothly. They did this by being office aides, cafeteria workers, and monitors.

The office aides contributed their time to do various jobs such as filing, keeping information in order, running errands for busy teachers, typing, and occasionally answering the phone. These students found that their work was both enjoyable and useful to the teachers, secretaries, and counselors.

Another essential group was the cafeteria workers. The teachers and students depended on the cafeteria workers to serve lunch. Efficiency counted because time was limited. Besides the aides who prepared the lunches, there were workers serving as dish washers and monitors. All these workers added to the smoothly run cafeteria system.

The hall monitors were chosen for their responsibility and dependability. Their responsibilities included keeping order in the halls during and between classes and reporting any disturbances that they discovered. Monitors also were to check passes, to check all locks to make sure that they were not open, to run errands for teachers, and to direct anyone who couldn't find his way.

All of the office aides, cafeteria workers, and monitors were a great help to everyone.

Dianne Molkentine has given up a study hall to perform the duty of a monitor.

Checking the attendance, Ruthmary Wood, Russ Lane, and Terry Pesavento are aides in Office 218.

Jill Riebe and Barb Lawrence work as counseling room aides during their free period.

Donna Hutchinson fulfills her duty of checking every pass, as Jack Kesser "roams the halls."

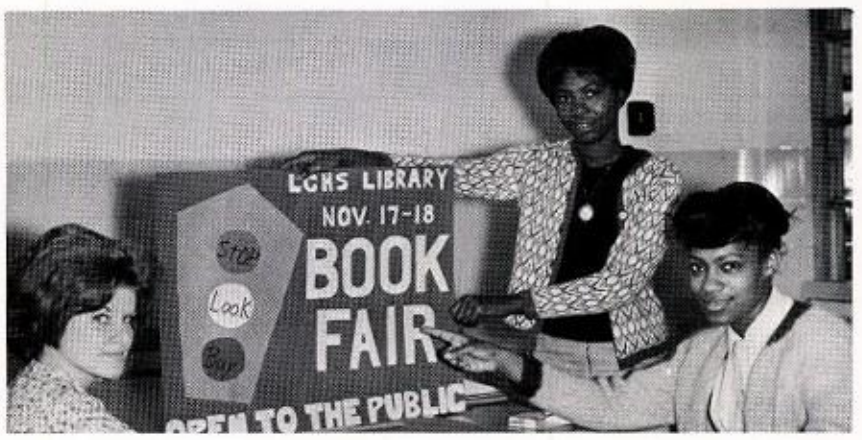
Librarians—Clerks of Words

Officers Karen Cronholm, Secretary; Charlene Pitts, Treasurer; Charlotte Saunders, President; Lucille Robertson, Vice-President; and Miss Lucy Ward, sponsor, worked very diligently on the newly formed organization.

The Student Librarian's Club, sponsored by Miss Lucy Ward, was officially organized this year. The officers of this organization were Charlotte Saunders, president; Lucille Robertson, vice-president; Karen Cronholm, secretary; and Charlene Pitts, treasurer. The purpose of the organization was to provide a social link of service between the students and librarians. The club also gave students a chance to meet students from other schools who were pursuing the same goals. To be eligible for membership a student must have served as a librarian for at least one semester. The outstanding and major money-making project of the year was the Book Fair. Social activities included a Christmas party and a spring banquet.



Library aides, Barbara Brower, and Charlotte Saunders, work on advertisements for the annual book fair.

The coming of June, 1966, marked the finale of the educational career of Mr. Edward Flink. Although the door has closed on Mr. Flink's professional career, he will long be remembered in the halls of Lockport Township High School for his warm, friendly smile and pleasant disposition.

Upon his graduation from Lombard College, Mr. Flink began a career in the field of education which was to cover a span of four decades. His first position, which proved to be a very successful one, was that of a coach and teacher at Lemont High School. This young, industrious teacher soon caught the attention of Mr. James Smith who was Superintendent of Lockport Township High School. In 1936, Mr. Smith invited Mr. Flink to apply for a position at Lockport. He did and was hired. During his years at Lockport Township High School, he has served as football and baseball coach, athletic director, Dean of Boys, and eventually principal.

Mr. Flink has come into contact with countless students. Few of them will ever forget the impression he has made upon them, especially those who have had the "privilege" of sitting in his office.

Mr. Flink has shown us the way a young person, born and raised in a town such as ours, becomes one of its most admired leaders. He is a living example of the kind of person "our town" is proud to claim.

The Board of Education together with the administration work to make our schools a place in which students who desire truth are able to pursue that end. They accomplish this by securing the finest teachers to educate tomorrow's leaders and by securing the best personnel to keep the school functioning at its peak. These men are the builders of tomorrow. When the students of today go forward to give of themselves to the future it is because these men gave of themselves today.

The tasks that the Board of Education and the administration perform are soon forgotten but the effects of these tasks can never be erased. Each person who has stepped inside the school building has received something from previous members who have built a tradition of learning.

When the lunch bell rings, everyone appreciates the food prepared by the efficient cafeteria staff. They not only serve the food but also arrive at school early every morning to plan these meals. The hungry student body is thankful for the efforts of these women.

Another group of industrious workers is the maintenance crew. They work day and night to keep our school neat, clean, and comfortable. Their services are greatly appreciated by everyone.

"You've got to love life to have life, and you've got to have life to love life . . . It's what they call a vicious circle . . . Try and remember what it was like when you were young, when you were fifteen or sixteen. For some reason it is a very hard thing to do: those days when even the little things in life could be almost too exciting to bear. And particularly the days when you were first in love; when you were like a person sleepwalking, and you didn't quite see the street you were in and didn't quite hear everything that was said to you. You're just a little bit crazy. Will you remember that, please?"

You should have seen the foot that kicked it!

It's Howdy Doody Time!!

A drink a day and hit the hay!

"Now they'll be coming out of high school at three o'clock. George has just been elected president of the junior class; and it's June, that means he'll be president of the senior class all next year. And Emily's just been elected secretary and treasurer. I don't have to tell you how important that is."

"No ma'am, there isn't much culture; but maybe this is the place to tell you that we've got a lot of pleasures of a kind here: we like the sun comin' up over the mountain in the morning, and we all notice a good deal about the birds. We pay a lot of attention to them and trees and plants. And we watch the change of the seasons: yes, everybody knows about them. But those other things—."

"Do any human beings ever realize life while they live it, every, every minute?"

ACTIVITIES

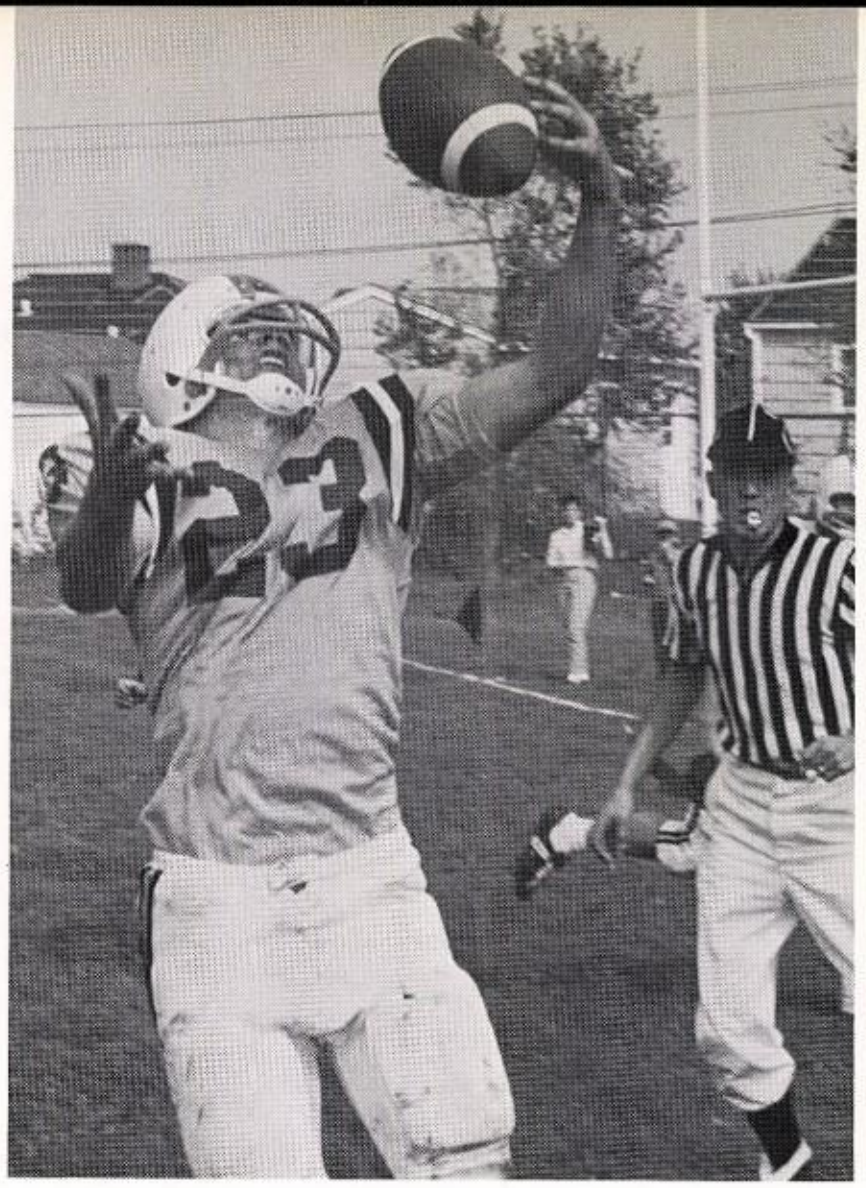
John Handy gallops around all opponents.



Baby, come to Papa!
Paul Pesavento pulls in another aerial.

Our fighting Porters finished this year with a 5—3—1 record, one of the finest in twenty years. Under the very capable direction of Coach Zimmer and Co-captains Rick Counts, Bob Rogers, and Barry Anderson, our boys sailed into their first two games with big wins. First, the team backed Kankakee into a corner by handing them a 19—14 defeat. Then Joliet Central fell before the snowballing Porter victory wagon with a 22—12 score. Argo tried to stop the Porter streak, but had to settle for a 7—7 deadlock.

The unbeaten Porters, now full of spirit and the highest possible morale, dashed into the Homecoming game with Bloom, only to come out losers as shown by the 19—0 score. The following week, Thornton, the league leaders, handed us a 46—0 defeat, accounting for our second loss of the season.

Once again Lockport started on the right path by thoroughly thrashing Joliet West 14—7. Eisenhower tripped on the Porter offense, and the home team picked up another victory 26—13.

Thornridge proved to be our final downfall. They turned the tables on our defense and took the game by a 26—15 tally.

Topping off the season with a victory, Lockport once more smashed a Joliet team. This time Lockport took Joliet East with a 40—6 score which gave Lockport a record of for the '65 season.

Mighty Multi-Milers

The sixth season of our Cross Country team proved to be a successful one. Coached by Bill Connors, who always kept them right on the track, our harriers tied their best season record.

Following losses to Lincoln-Way, Kankakee, and Joliet Central, the Porters overcame Argo and Joliet Central. In one of the roughest meets of the season, the team tied the hard-running Bloom team. However, this deadlock was to be followed by six losses. These losses did not dim our teams spirit. Coach Connors brought the team home with the fourth place trophy in the annual Herald News Conference.

Next season promises to be one of the finest for Lockport. Several varsity men as well as many runners from the sophomore team, who finished with a 5—8 record, will be returning.

The top varsity seven were as follows: Rich Piper, Jim Carroll, Keith Longhini, Bob Reiter, Randy Henning, Dennie Bromberek, and Leo Cleveland.

Red Rover Red Rover sent the Porters right over.

A gray mist settled over Lockport on October 7 but didn't stop the enthusiastic spirit of the crowd watching the 65' Homecoming parade. The senior entry, "The Conquering of the Trojan Horse," was awarded first prize while the junior and F.F.A. floats won second and third prize respectively.

That night's activity was the Homecoming game, but to the disappointment of the Lockport fans the fighting Porters lost to the Bloom Trojans.

The following night the Jaguars played at the annual dance. Scott Cronholm and Jody Reid were crowned king and queen by Tom Zander, last year's King. As the dance ended everyone fondly remembered the Homecoming of 65'—66'.

Homecoming—1965

"We Barge thru Em," was the slogan of the Future Farmers third place float.

Tom Zander looks on with interest at the coronation kiss.

The junior class float, the creamer, won a deserving second prize.

The senior class float, "The Conquering of the Trojan Horse," was awarded first prize giving the seniors first prize two years in a row.

Realizing that they are caught, the crooks, Mike Zlogar and Louis Terzick, prepare to make a get-away while Scott Corwin tries to prevent it.

"Books and Crooks"

The Junior Class presented the play Books and Crooks by Newt Mitzman and William Dalzell on November 18 and 19. Miss Helen Rothlisberger directed the play which starred Mike Zlogar. The other cast members were Lenny Sanazaro, Ruthmary Wood, Sandy Baumgartner, Scott Corwin, Chris Ellena, Diane Simpson, Louis Terzick, Linda Hicks, Pam Johnson, Sarah Edwards, Bill White, Gerry Peterson, Bill Whalen, and Pam Bargas. Marianne Grenko was student director and Miss Gwen Doering was technical director.

The three-act play was a comedy about two robbers who used a high school as a hide-out. Complications developed as one robber resembled the school principal.

"But that's impossible, I just used new, ice-blue Secret."

While discussing plans for the new band uniforms, one of the crooks, Louis Terzick, emphatically says no to the suggestion of pom poms for the uniforms.

Marianne Grenko, student director, found her hard work well rewarded.

Connor's Court Masters

One of the finest teams ever to play at L.C.H.S. was the Porter team of '65-'66. Their record was an attractive 20—5.

The fighting Porters won the Lockport Invitational Tournament for the fourth consecutive year by defeating Rich East and Joliet Catholic. The Porters then went on to defeat Kankakee, Joliet East, Central, and West.

For several years Lockport has traveled to the Pontiac Holiday Tournament. This year the team beat Richwoods but was stopped by Waukegan.

The Porters went on to win 14 more games and were defeated only by Argo, Thornton, and twice by Joliet Central.

Although the Porters didn't go any further than second place in the regional, they did receive second place in the South Suburban League, only bending to Thornton which went on to win the State Tournament.

Mr. Connors has resigned as head basketball coach, after many successful seasons, and will devote his time strictly to the teaching profession.

This years managers were Chuck Huckaba, Dale Clark, Don Miller, and Alton Marlar.

Barry Anderson, Student Council Co-president, presents Mr. Connors with a floral decoration given by the Lievens' Floral Shop.

It's just another one of those half-time breaks with new plays and new "instructions."

Faculty Frolics

The Lockport Central Gym came to life as the annual Interclass Tournament began with a stirring game between the Juniors and the Freshmen. The Juniors arose the victors by a score of 40—35. The climax of the first round came when the Seniors smashed the Sophomores 53—29.

The Freshmen versus the Sophomores was the first bout of the second round, with the Freshmen upsetting the Sophomores 45—21. The main event matched the wits of the Seniors against the Juniors. The Seniors proved to much for the Juniors in the final minutes of play and won by the narrow margin of 37—34. This meant the Seniors would have to face the "Fearless Faculty" on Friday night.

The championship night came and the "Fearless Faculty" was on its toes. It was touch and go the whole game and at half time the "Fearless Faculty" was found to be ahead by the slight margin of 37—33. The "Fearless Faculty" proved victorious by overpowering the Seniors in the final minutes of play by the "small" margin of 79—57.

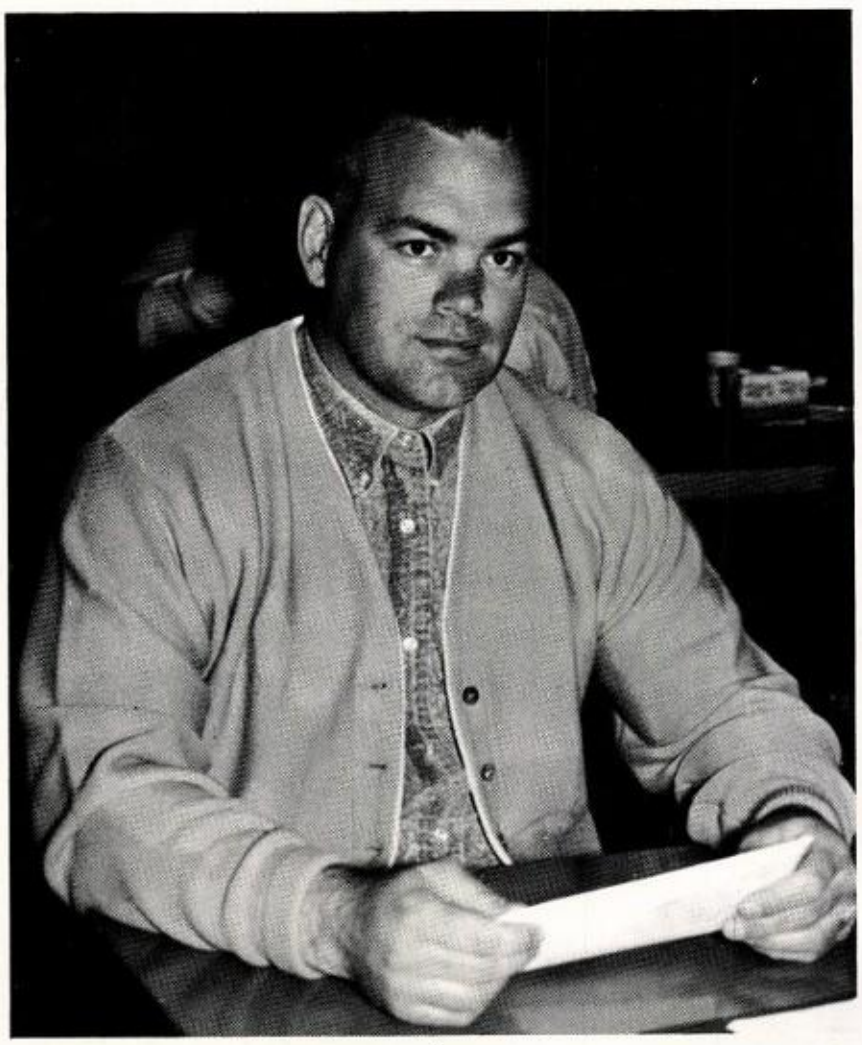
Lockport's Wrestlers



Mr. Bill Zimmer, the varsity wrestling coach, goes over final plans for the wrestling tournament.

This year's wrestling team, coached by Mr. William Zimmer, ended the season with a 7—4 record. They included among their many achievements a District championship, fourth place in South Suburban League, the Rich Quadrangular and the Lockport Quadrangular, and fifth place in the Sectional Tournament. The members of the team are Bill Townsand, at 95 pounds, Mike Anzzolin, at 103, Bob Mitchell, 112, Clyde Snapp, 120, Bob Wright, 127, Russ Lane, 133, Mark Zander, 133, Barry Anderson, 138, and R. V. Adams at 145. Art Loggins wrestled at 154 pounds, Ozell Lincoln at 165, at 180, Mike Ebonroth at 180, and Heavyweight, Rich Counts. Bill Wilson served as manager of the team.

Several individual records deserve a close look. One of these records belongs to R. V. Adams. R. V. took third place in the South Suburban and in the I.H.S.A. State Tournament. He was a Plainfield Tourney champ, as well as District and Sectional champ. R. V. is one of two Lockport Wrestlers who were two-time Sectional champions. He also represented the team twice at the State Tourney. Another outstanding record is that of Ozell Lincoln. He was a South Suburban, District, and Sectional Champion, and the first two-time Conference Champion in the school's history. Ozell's varsity career record is 42—6—2, while R. V.'s is 45—10—2. These two records are just a sample of wrestling ability and spirit shown by the team at all their meets.

Fins Finest "Feats"

Mr. Charles Beseman and Mr. Jerry Fornoff worked diligently to make the swimming team a success.

The Porter swimming team enjoyed the most successful season in the school's history. Although forfeiting all diving events, a circumstance causing a loss of 8 points in every meet, the tankmen were still able to muster a respectable record of seven wins and nine losses.

Lockport finished sixth in the South Suburban Conference, third in the Reavis Invitational Meet and tenth in the district competition.

The varsity team broke seven of a possible thirteen team records. Dan "Bud" Pounovich, sophomore and varsity co-captain, set new records in the 200-yard freestyle, 160 and 200 yard individual medleys, 100-yard breaststroke, and 100-yard butterfly. Greg Misius established a new record in the 60-yard freestyle. The 400-yard freestyle relay record fell to Scott Cronholm, senior and varsity co-captain, George Brown. Greg Misius, and Dan Pounovich.

Dan Pounovich also finished third in the district and swam the 200-yard individual medley in Illinois State Competition.

The sophomores tasted success too, finishing third in the Argo Invitational Tournament, and fifth in the conference.

. Mr. Beseman, varsity coach, remarked, "I think this is the best team we've had at Lockport. We were able to swim two strong men at each position, requiring each swimmer to put out to his full ability."

Ron Homerding had the attention of everyone present with his fine speech.

The choir and band of Lockport Central combined their talents and added musical enjoyment to the fine Veteran's day Assembly.

The annual Veteran's Day assembly was held November 10th at 10 A.M. in the LCHS auditorium. The colors were posted by a color guard representing the Marines, Navy, Army and Air Force and Rev. Gilbert Bengston delivered the Invocation. Ron Homerding spoke on "The Meaning of Veteran's Day." The main address was given by Michael J. Orenic, Circuit Judge of the 17th Judicial Circuit. The choir and band provided the music.

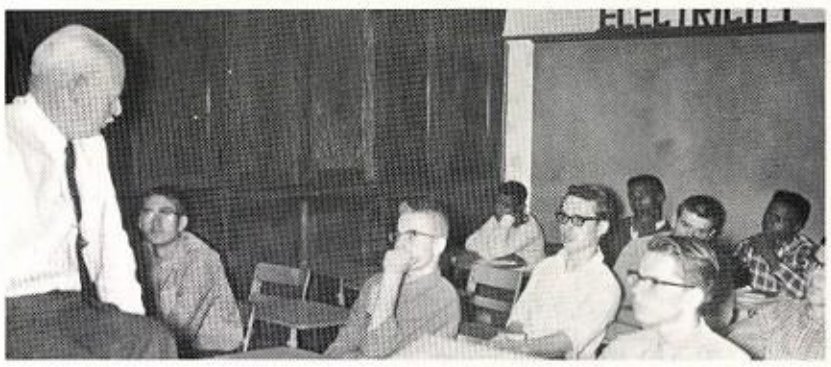
Everyone was pleased to have the war mothers at the Veteran's Day Program.

Assemblies Stimulate Interest

This happy group of students were fascinated with the things Mr. Stephenson had to say as he took their picture.

Friday, November 12th, was the date for the Careers Day Assembly this year. This program allowed students to talk to people in a career of the students' interest. First Mr. Verne Dillon addressed the students on "The Changing Picture in the World of Work." After the address, students separated into groups with the person in the field of their special interest. Three sessions were held so different fields could be investigated.

Mr. Michaelson gave an interesting lecture to the boys interested in the field of tool and dye manufacturing.



Thanks to the many professional men who came to speak to classes of students interested in their professions, we were once again able to have a successful Careers Day.

Joann Nall, Nellie Mitchell, Linda Hollister, Pat Small, Eileen Cialoni, Mark Zander, Mike Ebenroth, Bill Sobczak, and Dave Beckham start off the day with the annual Sadie Hawkins Roundup.

Dogpatch U.S.A.

On Friday, November 19th, the wildest assembly ever presented at LCHS brought down the house. First a cast of down-trodden mountain folk put on a skit mocking life in Dogpatch. The main characters were Mike Ebenroth as Lil' Abner, Pat Small as Daisey Mae, Eileen Cialoni as Ma Yocum, and Mark Zander as Pa Yocum.

After the skit there were two contests; the first an "ugliest legs on campus" contest and then a hog calling contest. Among all the whistles and howls of laughter, the ugliest legs turned out to be those of knock-kneed, bow-legged, pigeoned-toed Leo Cleveland. Last but not least the hog callers came on stage and also a real live pig squealing and screeching. John Shepherd walked away with all the honors.

On November 20th, the TWIRP Dance, the grand finale of the wild week, was held. Amid bails of hay, tree stumps, corn stalks and pumpkins, the music of the Midnighters boomed. To finish off the evening, Sue Reed and John Brubaker were crowned Daisy Mae and Lil' Abner of Dogpatch, U.S.A.

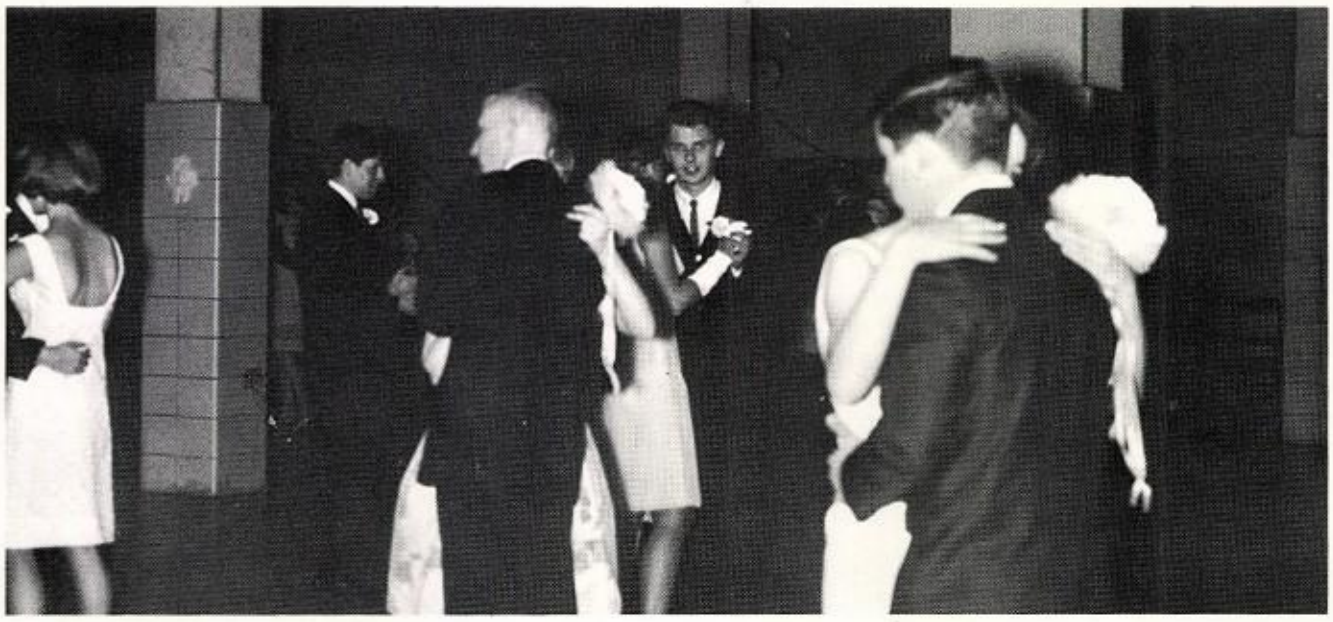
George Radcliffe and Norma Mitchell played the scientist and the "made woman".



John Brubaker, Pat McSherry, Linda Bogenschneider, Stan Etter, Sandy Baumgartner, Ken Kozak, Jody Reid, and Scott Cronholm seem to have enjoyed the music of the Knights.

Rhapsody in Blue

Ted Ward, Sylvia Albertus, Jill Brown, Bob Rogers, Doug Ingram, and Cam Smith found their happiest moments near the refreshments.

The annual spring semi-formal dance, sponsored by the Student Council, came into focus on Saturday, February 26, 1966, in the Lockport Central Cafeteria. The theme "Rhapsody in Blue," was carried out by a blue atmosphere with a taste of French cuisine.

In the center of the dance-floor was a large replica of the Eiffel Tower. Along the side walls was a side-walk cafe which was lit by candle dripped bottles.

All in all, it was a beautiful night full of fun and romance for all.

"Father's Been to Mars"

Most Senior Class plays have come and gone and have been forgotten. "Father's Been to Mars" was one exception. Many ingredients went into the play to make it a success. One of the most important ingredients was the director, Miss Helen Rothlisberger. Other ingredients were Miss Gwen Doering, the technical director, Steve Hall, the student director and the different chairmen and their crews. Finally there was the able cast, John Svoboda, Kathy Drake, Dianne Molkentine, Elaine Longhini, Bruce Field, Judy Jerabek, Martha Schacke, Jill Riebe, Kathy Murphy, Betty McCain, and Steve Hall.

After three and one-half years of blasting through outer space on his TV show, Larry Gibson found it difficult to change from space hero, Captain Galaxy, to husband and father. Complications arose when his wife and his older daughter, Gloria, became so disgusted with his behavior that they decided to give him a dose of his own medicine. Ned Morris, Gloria's boyfriend, brought an unexpected ending.

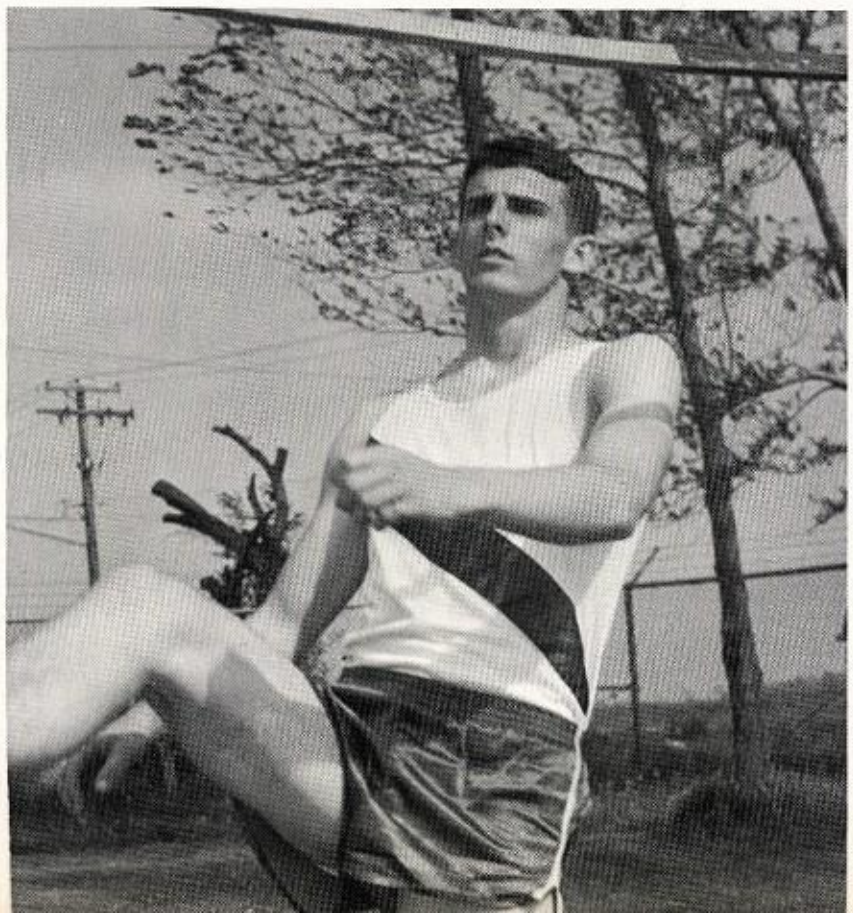
Bob Rogers, a senior standout, attempts the high jump while in the meet against Joliet Catholic.



This year the Varsity Track Team had one of its best records. Bob Rogers, a senior track star, was able to travel to the state meet in Champaign due to his excellence in the high jump competition.

The Sophomore Team also had a good record. With their team, the Porters can expect to stand out in the newly formed Illini Eight Conference in the future as they have done this year.

Mr. William Jackson and Mr. Albert Bean, track coaches, deserve much credit for their more than well accomplished task. Little do we, the student body, realize that these two men coach over sixty boys a season and come up with winning teams. The Porter fans will never be let down with two such men as these at the lead.

"B" = Baseball + Boys = Best

A powerful trio led the '66 baseball team to a successful season. The trio included the fine supervision of Mr. Nedde and Mr. Fender and a very fine team backing them up.

The team this year was a well rounded team. They excelled in pitching, fielding, and hitting. This combination led our team to an overall record of 13 wins and 6 losses.

Lockport was well represented by our team. To top off their very fine overall record, the team finished with a conference record of 7 wins and 3 losses. This enabled them to win the first place trophy. However, they had to share the honor with Kankakee.

Four members of the team were chosen for the first All-Conference Team. Two were seniors, Ted Ward and Barry Anderson, and two were juniors, Bill Sobczak and Gary Steffins.

The students of Lockport are very proud of their baseball team and are looking forward to the comings seasons with optimism.

Under the fine supervision of Mr. Robert Hess, our tennis team was gifted with a record of 10 wins and 5 losses. With the top-notch group of "Racketeers" he had to work with, Mr. Hess was able to capture the third place in the Illini Eight Conference.

Despite the lack of athletic facilities for the purpose of tennis, our team has done a remarkable job of portraying the true Lockport High spirit. We can be very proud of our Netmen and their accomplishments for a very fine year. Mr. Hess is looking forward to next year which will be another fine year for the Netmen with a fine group of underclassmen carrying on the fine tennis record.

This year under the fine direction of Mr. Bob Basarich, the golf team saw its best season ever. The team and Mr. Basarich can be very proud of their fine record. Among the many publicity honors that the press bestowed on both team and coach was also the great honor of receiving first place in the tough District competition. But our golfers didn't rest on their laurels, they went on and captured second place in the Illinois State Tournament.

Mr. Basarich is looking forward to a very successful season next year since most of this year's first time will be returning. L.T.H.S. is very proud of our team and congratulates them on their excellent accomplishments.

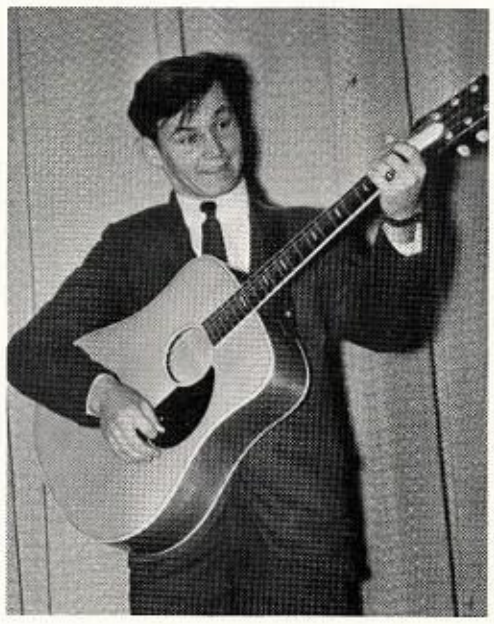
Batman G

Jimmy Meyer, co-master of ceremonies, plucks out a tune to liven up the time between acts.



On April 1, 1966, the stage of the Lockport Central Auditorium was transformed into the famous Batcave of Batman and Robin, as the National Honor Society presented its annual talent show. This year's theme was "Batman Goes Amateur."

The Batcave contained many computors of all different sizes. Lights blinked on and off as the computors worked to find answers to questions put into the intake opening. The answers then came pouring out the output opening. Also, a large table full of complicated apparatus used in many ingenious experiments was part of the Batcave setting.

Included in the talent show were soloists, folk-singers, combos, Go-Go dances, piano soloists, and a toe dancer. Also, a song and dance was done to "The Old Soft Shoe." Several girls provided further entertainment in their comedy skit "Spring Attire," and, of course, Batman and Robin appeared repeatedly between acts, and their skit brought the show to an end.

Praise was deserved by each and every one of those connected with the show, both those backstage and those out performing in front of the lights, for a very successful performance.

One of the high points of the evening was a solo by Marlene Jones.

Annie Dixon, Rosie Dixon, and Minnie Holman sang to the accompaniment of LeRoy Campbell's band.

Bill Neal, Marty Sullivan, Barry Anderson, and Batman Beckham provided hardy entertainment for the entire audience.

Al Bertani and his combo really livened the show as did the many other bands of this type.

Janet Onderisin relived a scene in "Oklahoma" with "I cain't say no."

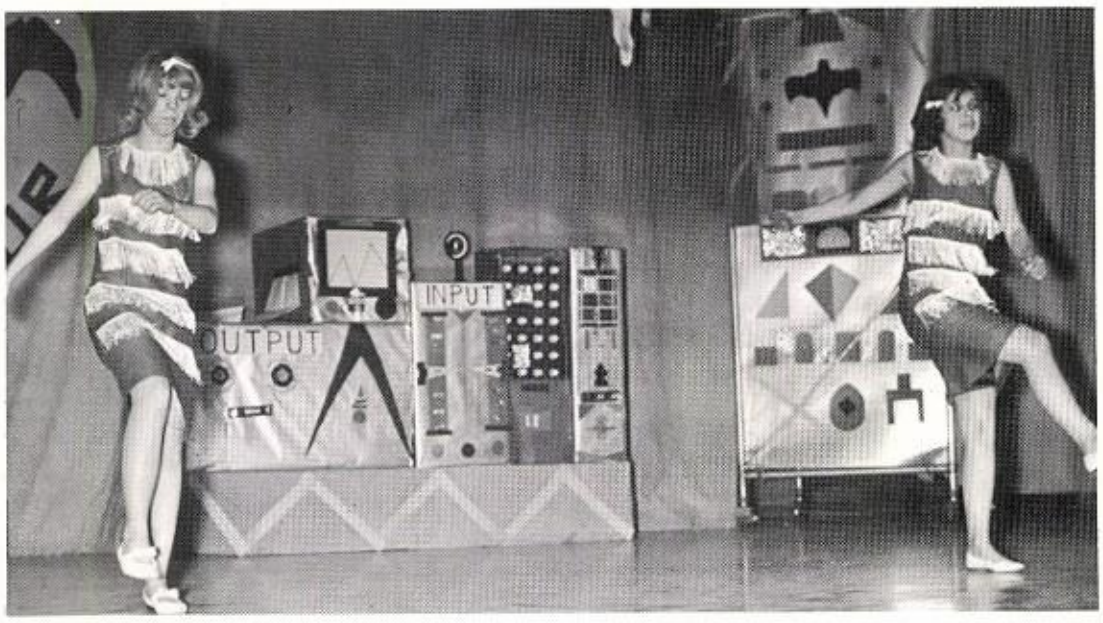
Peggy Aagesen, a freshman, performed a piano solo.

Marianne Grenko and Jim Meyer displayed their talent when they sang folk-song duets.

The Apollos were also a high point which was primarily made up of outside talent.

Debbie Bitter gave the audience a taste of the "Old Soft Shoe."

These flappers flipped during a chorus of the charleston.



After a victory, the Porter Pepper-uppers celebrate with a dance.

After a game, the students were usually in high spirits. They were full of pep and energy, and they liked to get together and put some of their energy into action. The LOCK staff provided this chance. After an exciting football or basketball game, the Porter fans gathered in the Lockport Central gym for the casual Lockport Dances.

The music was provided by local bands. This year a few of the bands were the Fugitive Five, the Midnighters, the Knights, and the Jaguars. Everybody brought his own version of the latest dance craze.

The dances were well supervised, and involved a lot of planning and hard work. The dance manager this year was Jill Riebe. Her assistants were Paula McCann and Jo Ann Benton. They worked closely with Carol Larson, Business Manager; and Miss Janet Johnson, the LOCK sponsor, to make the dances a success.

Besides being a source of entertainment, fun, a good place to take a date, and where to learn the latest gossip, the LOCK dances also helped to promote School spirit.

Mr. Ed Flink and Mrs. Marion Morrison were all smiles following the assembly in Mrs. Morrison's honor.

Mrs. Marion Morrison stands for an ovation at the surprise assembly that was in her honor.

Retirement Brings Assemblies

With June not only came the passing of the seniors, but also three highly respected members of the staff, Mrs. Marion Morrison, Mrs. Jane Manwaring, and Mr. Edward Flink.

Mrs. Morrison was the first to be honored. An assembly was held in her honor, and she was presented with a corsage, a certificate of honor, and a life-time pass to all Lockport activities. Jill Brown and Christine Cook were assigned to Mrs. Morrison for the day to help her with her classes and to run any errands she had for them.

Mrs. Manwaring was honored the following day. She was also presented with a certificate, a life-time pass, and a corsage. Virginia Affrunti and Elaine Wegrzyn were her aides for the day.

Mr. Flink was honored at an assembly that will be remembered by everyone present for years to come. He was seated on a throne on the stage, and as a group of student panalists asked him questions, he answered in his humerous and easy way. As the band played periodic music, Mr. Flink sang along and went as far as doing the charleston with a student flapper. The assembly was gay with the exception of an emotional moment when the entire student body, the faculty, and the administration stood to sing Lockport's loyalty as a final farewell to Mr. Edward Flink.

Mr. Edward Flink presented Mrs. Jane Manwaring with a certificate of honor at the assembly that designated Mrs. Manwaring Day at Lockport Central.

National Honor

The National Honor Society is an organization established for service. Membership in the society is based on the qualities of Scholarship, Character, Leadership, and Service. N.H.S. tries to complete at least two service projects during the year. This year one of the projects was the annual Talent Show—Batman Goes Amateur. Many students participated in the show, not only as actors, and dancers, but in stage construction and lighting and sound. The highlight of the show was a Batman skit starring Dave Beckham as Batman and Leo Cleveland as Robin, the Boy Wonder.

The Annual Induction Ceremony was held at 2:30, Wednesday, February 16, 1966. The active members renewed their pledge, and new members were inducted by lighting their individual candles from the flames of the four candles symbolizing the four requirements for election to the society. Speeches were given on the four qualities and on the Keystone and Torch, symbol of the N.H.S. After the ceremony refreshments were served in the cafeteria.

The officers of this year's N.H.S. are Doug Apgar, president, Barry Anderson, vice-president, Jill Brown, secretary, and Kathy Meader, treasurer. Mr. Neil Rippe served as sponsor for the organization, attending all the meetings and advising the members.

June 9, 1966

This year a new award was given to a member of each class who attained the highest scholastic average for that year. The award has been named the Flink Award in honor of Mr. Edward Flink. The award winners were Ruthmary Wood, junior; Beth Matesi, junior; Mike Anzzolin, sophomore; Pamela Witt, freshman; and Doug Apgar, senior.

The marshals, chosen by the senior class, were Barbara Baxter and Richard Malinowski.

The End of

The evening of June ninth, nineteen hundred and sixty-six brought to a close the high school career of over three hundred young men and women. In lustrous royal blue caps and gowns, the Class of 1966 proudly accepted the symbols of their high school success, their diplomas.

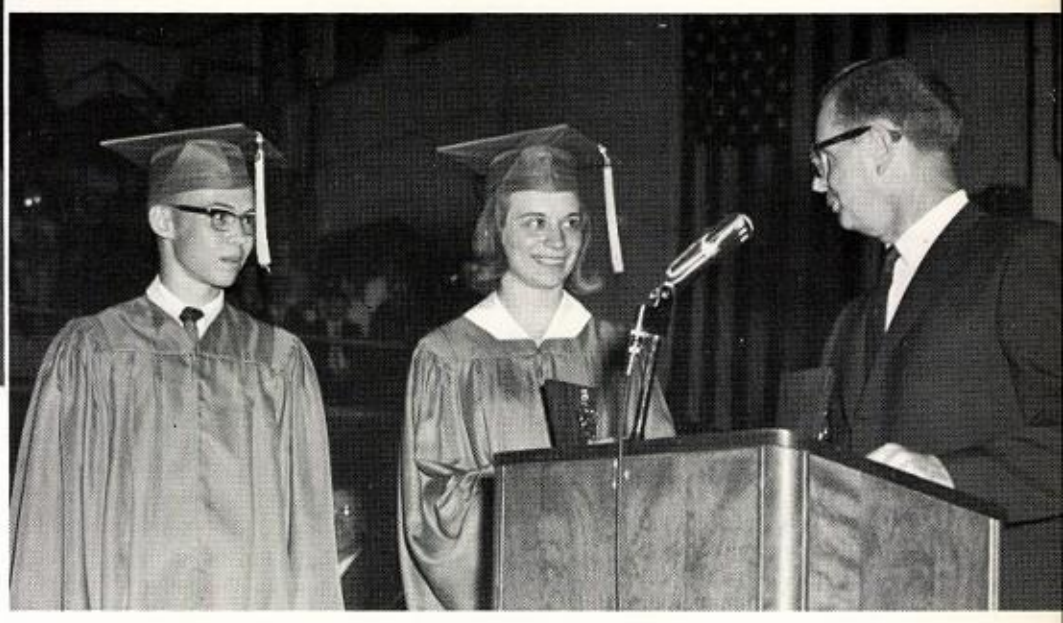
It was an evening filled with mixed emotions. As the graduates perhaps recalled some fond memories of their high school days, one could see both smiles and a few tears. It had not been an easy task for this class to reach their graduation. They were the class that had been the only class in the history of L.T.H.S. to attend school in split shifts during their freshmen year. They were the class that remained underclassmen for three years because of the new East Campus.

But in spite of many obstacles they had reached their graduation as a fine and successful class. They brought an end to the era of having attended classes in the same L.T.H.S. building for four years and were also the last class to graduate with Mr. Edward Flink as principal. Mr. Flink retired with the Class of 1966.

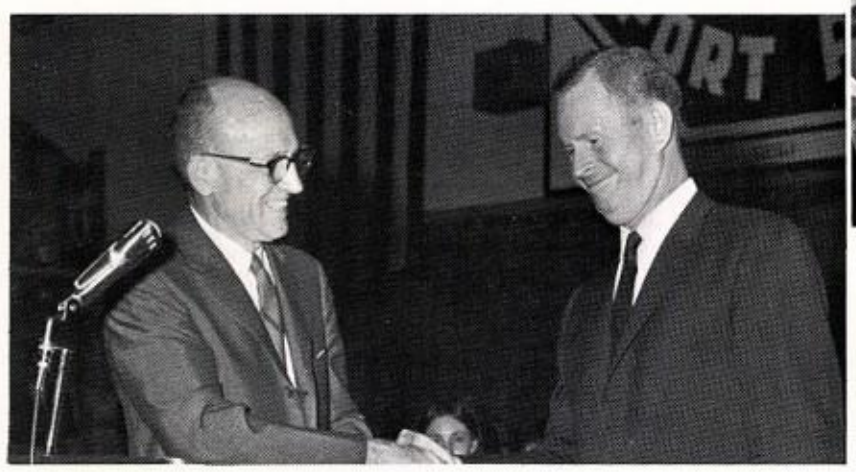
The student speakers, Steven Hall and Mary Ann Podolski, addressed the class with words of wisdom, reviewing the past and contemplating the future. As the band began to play "Pomp and Chivalry", the class rose, standing as a class for the last time and slowly they proceeded to leave the gym, many with tears running down their cheeks. So it was the end of the beginning. No one knows what the future may hold for the members of the Class of 1966, however, one could tell by just a glance at these fine men and women that they would be prepared. Lockport can be proud to claim the Class of 1966 as its sons and daughters.

Douglas Apgar and Diana Entwisle receive duplicate trophies symbolizing their highly achieved goal of Valedictorian of the senior class.

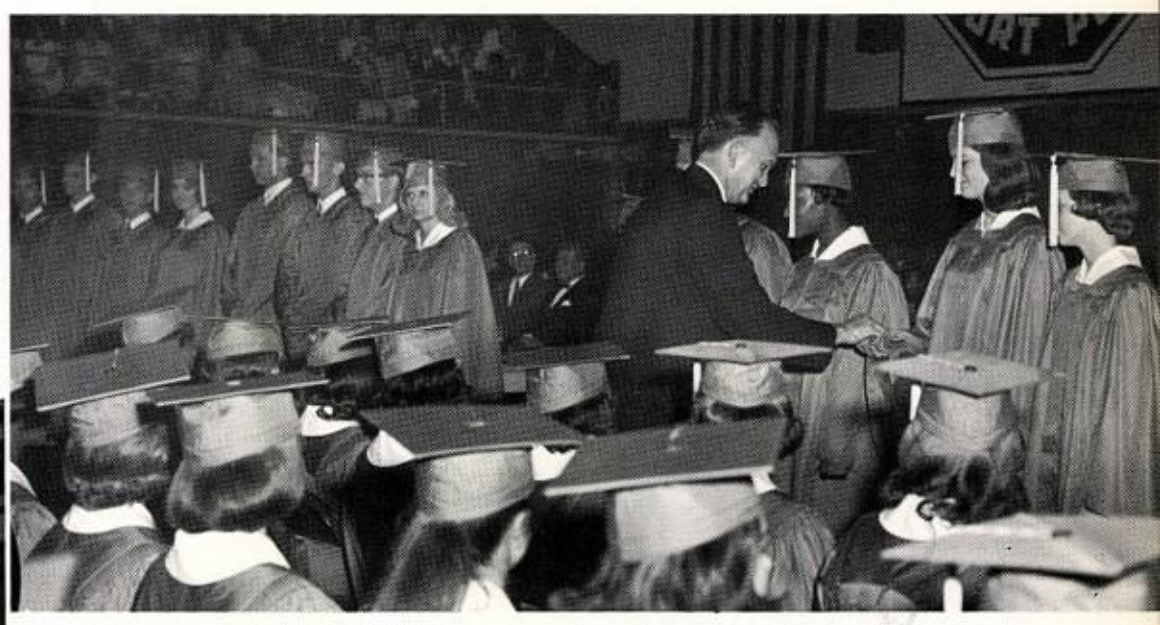
The honor of Salutatorian was a duo award this year. The recipiants were Steven Hall and Kathleen Meader.



the Beginning

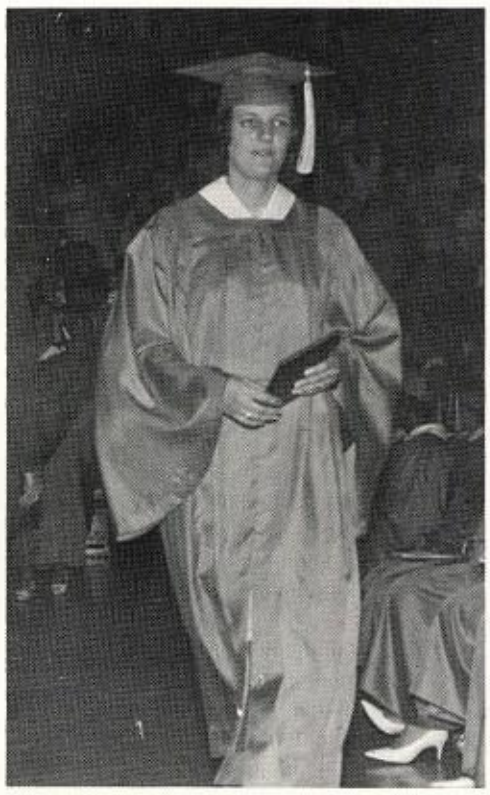


Mr. Daymond Aiken congratulates Mr. Edward Flink on his thirty years of fine service to Lockport Township High School.

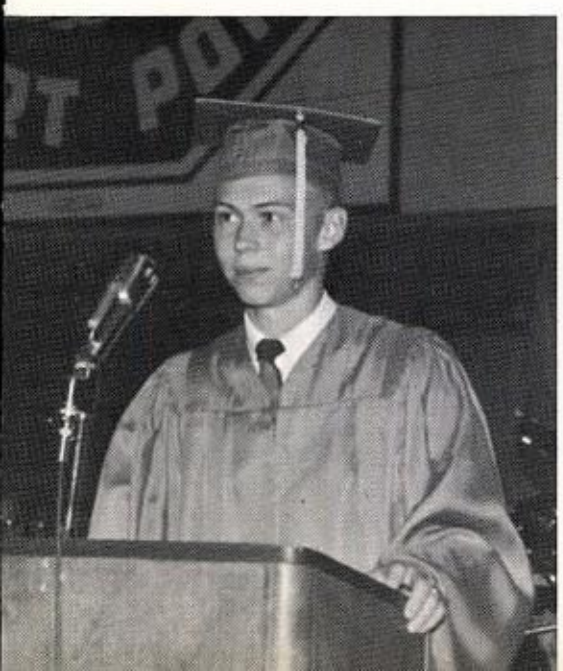


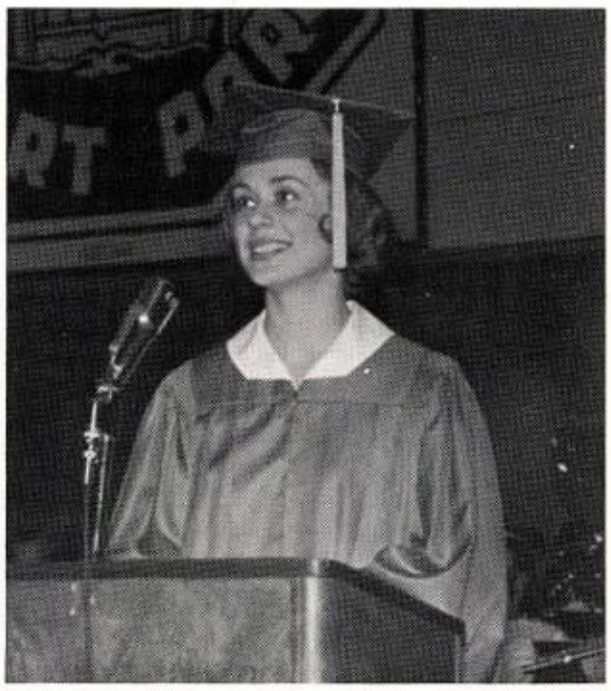
Mr. Leroy Lawrence, class sponsor, distributing key charms to the healthier of the graduating class, those who have never missed a day of school in four years.

As class role was called, each graduate proudly accepted her diploma for four years of hard work. Mary Jean Wittenkeller graciously accepts this award.



Steven Hall delivered his speech on the past "A Bank For Life."





Mary Ann Podolski presented her speech with thoughts for the future based on a quote by John Donne "For Whom the Bell Tolls."

. . . Yes, it's clearing up. There are the stars—doing their old crisscross journeys in the sky. Scholars haven't settled the matter yet, but they seem to think there are no living beings up there. They're all just chalk . . . or fire
